Overhaul Your Machine

The Twentieth Century farmer is nothing if not progressive. In his work he uses a great deal of machinery. Every winter he gives his machinery a thorough overhauling—adjusting most parts that should be adjusted so that when the spring comes everything will be in running order. The business man and woman should take pattern by the successful farmer and should pay the same attention to their intricate Human Machine that the farmer pays to his Farm Machinery. Be sure that your spine is in a normal condition so that you can give your undivided attention to your business affairs. Have your spine examined, periodically by a Chiropractor (Human Mechanic). See that it is kept in normal condition. If necessary take Chiropractic Vertebral Adjustments. It will pay you.

Slight subluxations at the following points will cause co-called:

- 1 Headaches, Eye Disease, Deafness, Epilepsy, Vertigo, Insomnia, Wry Neck, Locomotor Ataxia, etc.
- 2 Throat Trouble, Neuralgia, Gout, Nervous Prostration, La Grippe, Dizziness, Catarrh, etc.
- 3 Bronchitis, Rheumatism of Arms and Shoulders, Hay Fever, etc.
- 4 Nervousness, Heart Disease, Asthma, Pneumonia, Tuberculosis, Difficult Breathing.
- 5 Stomach, Liver and Spleen Trouble, also Pleurisy.

Let a Chiropractor, using the hands only, adjust to proper position these Subluxated Vertebrae and remove the cause of so-called Disease. CHIROPRACTIC is the Best Way to Health. It is absolutely drugless and stands up well under the searching rays of the Searchlight of Publicity. Pure, unadulterated Chiropractic is not guess-work. By a method of scientifically adjusting the subluxated vertebrae, the nerve pressure is relieved and the life force flows normally through the nerves to the various organs. The bare hands only are used. Try CHIROPRACTIC. It will solve your Health problems and is a method you can trust. Consultation and Spinal Analysis Free.

THE LATEST IN POLITICS

The Republican National Committee has selected Chicago and Tuesday, June 2, as the place and time for the National Convention at which the party's 1920 candidate for President will be nominated. On the roll call Chicago mustered 44 votes to 9, for St. Louis whose boosters had made a stubborn fight for the honor.

A special to the Portland Express from Lewiston says:—Hon. Louis J. Brann of this city is being freely discussed as the next Democratic candidate for Congress from the Second District. He has not stated that he would accept the nomination, neither has he said he would decline it. It is well known that he would have the backing of ex-Governor William McKellopp should he decide to get into the fight. Brann will not have the field to himself. James B. Perkins of Boothbay Harbor, who has been mentioned in years past as a candidate, is still in a receptive mood. It is understood, Karp county may also come forward with a candidate, ex-Mayor Phil Howard of Rockland having never given up his ambition to go to Congress.

GOV. COOLIDGE FOR PRESIDENCY

The Republican Club of Massachusetts, an organization of about 2,700 members, by a unanimous vote, has urged the nomination of Governor Coolidge for the Presidency. This action was taken without Governor Coolidge's knowledge; but if Massachusetts is to have a "favorite son" at the next National Republican Convention, it could scarcely name one who would better deserve the title. That he has not mimicked in national political issues might be reckoned a disadvantage; but, on the other hand, it is no slight advantage, for he has not incurred any of the animosities engendered by them. The enormous majority which he received at the recent State election, a majority seven times as large as that which he received last year, attests his strength as a representative of law and order, at any personal hazards, and would be a valuable asset, if he were to enter national politics.

81 Pleasant Street. Telephone 29-M.
If this telephone is not answered, call 56-X

Roll-call tomorrow, with the Bishop present at all services and the every-member canvass in the afternoon. See Thursday's notes for suggestions regarding the three kinds of pledges to be asked for. If you do not make your pledges in the Church at noon, please stay at home in the afternoon until called on.

The blue pledge, your enrollment for some kind of service, is the most important of the three. If you are already doing some kind of church work, be sure to mark it, and let the blue cards tell of all who want to help, and in what way. These service pledges begin at once; the red and black ink pledges begin Jan. 1st.

Services tomorrow, the Third Sunday in Advent, at 7:30 and 10:30 a. m., and at 7:30 p. m. No afternoon service. Church School at 12:15. All communicants are urged to come to the early Communion Service, when the Bishop will celebrate. The Bishop will preach at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Mobilization Day tomorrow: all be in your places, men, women, and children. May this day, so long looked forward to, mark the beginning of a new era for the parish. All help.

"HIS PERSONAL SCHEME"

President Wilson's "Vaulting Ambition" Criticized By a Former Rockland Man.

[Ester W. Porter in New York Sun:] Fortunate indeed is the country in having patriotic Senators who dared to stand for Americanism against internationalism, who were loyal to their oaths to protect the Constitution, who sought to make sure that our independence was not impaired.

The vaulting ambition of President Wilson to be the head of a super-state, even at the price of the independence of his own country, has been justly rebuked. If an opportunity is given the people to express their opinion on the matter at the polls he will again be repudiated and even more emphatically than before.

physically than he was one year ago. In the face of repudiation he went to Europe and told the people there that he had a "mandate" from America to organize a League of Nations. It was his personal scheme and one in which Europe showed very little interest, except in deference to his project. He sought to attain their own objects.

During his brief sojourn with us, when he first returned from Europe, he boasted that his covenant would be so entwined in the treaty that it would have to be accepted "without changing the dotting of an i or the crossing of a t"; that he could think of no "sweeter minded men" than to meet the "pious minded men" who preferred the Constitution of the United States to his covenant. This spirit has characterized the President's attitude from first to last. It culminated in his order to serve Senators, directing them to kill the treaty unless his covenant of the League were adopted "without change."

Mr. Wilson and his followers declare that America is fully protected in the instrument as originally drawn and submitted. They say that reservations were unnecessary, as everything covered by them was already implied in the covenant. Yet when these alleged implications were put into plain language and their acceptance demanded from the other Powers, the President turns down his thumb.

NEW EXPRESS RULES

Wooden Containers or Cartons Must Be Used For Shipments Over 25 Pounds.

The new express packing rules went into effect Wednesday. Under the regulations now in force, all express shipments over 25 pounds must be forwarded in wooden containers or cartons bearing the boxmakers' certificate as to strength and size required by the express company. No change is contemplated in the shipments under the 25 pound limit, which will still be accepted wrapped in paper.

Agent Harrington advises Christmas shoppers not only to send their holiday packages early, but to see that they were properly packed and accurately addressed. We expect a very large movement of Christmas gifts by express this year, and this at a time when we are handling a greater amount of traffic than at any period in the history of the railroads. It will be well for Christmas shippers to keep in mind the 25 pound limitation for paper-wrapped packages. Most holiday presents, we believe, are under that weight and are, therefore, not affected by the new rules. But any shipments over 25 pounds must be forwarded in special containers, and we will be very glad to give any one interested full information as to how they should pack their Christmas presents for shipment by express.

YANKEE DIVISION, AHOT!

Here's Your Chance To Protest Shabby Treatment of Gen. Edwards.

James L. Boyle of Waterville, a former sergeant of the 25th (Yankee) division has notified all former officers and men of that division in all parts of Maine of the action of the War department in jumping over Gen. Clarence B. Edwards and nominating for reappointment as prominent major general staff officers, men who are five or six years junior in rank to Gen. Edwards.

Sgt. Boyle urges that in view of the splendid war record of Gen. Edwards, the commander of the Yankee division, and the high esteem in which he is held in Maine that former Yankee division officers and men telegraph and write the United States senators from Maine in Washington protesting against the action of the War department.

Sgt. Boyle is the adjutant of the Maine branch of the American Legion.

FEAST OF DEDICATION

Chanukkah the Feast of Dedication, likewise known as the Feast of Lights, will be observed by the Jews Tuesday evening, Dec. 16. The festival lasts eight days, in accordance with an old legend which states that a single cruse of undefiled oil found in the Temple at the time of rededication burned for eight days through the miraculous intervention of God. For this reason the kindling of the lights in the home and in the synagogue is the most distinguishing feature of the festival. One candle is lit the first day, one the second day, and so on until a total are kindled on the last day of the feast. Special prayers and scriptural readings are recited in the synagogue, but the holiday is nevertheless regarded as a minor one because there is no injunction against labor on that day. In modern times the festival has assumed more the character of a children's celebration, a period of great joy, marked by the playing of games and the recounting of the great deeds of the Jewish heroes and martyrs of the past.

EMPIRE THEATRE

One of the most fascinating comedies of young love ever shown here is seen today, with Albert Ray and Eleanor Fair as the stars. This is "The Lost Princess," a Fox photoplay based on the flight from her troubled kingdom in Europe of a young princess, who incognito works for her living on a big American newspaper—where she finds that the love and the protecting arm of a red-blooded young American are better than all she left behind in Europe. The serial, "Elmo, the Mighty," grows more interesting with each episode.

A romance of the mining camps, featuring the beautiful Edna Bennett, will mark the beginning of next week's strong attractions. It is called "Fuss and Feathers." The story concerns a prospector who strikes it rich and his daughter Susie. They go to San Francisco where they are snubbed by society, but Susie has her revenge and marries a scion of wealth and aristocracy. There are many strong situations filled with interest and heart appeal.

"The Death Ride" is the title of "The Midnight Man" episode. It is one of James J. Connelley's best stunts—adv.

FUEL ADMINISTRATOR AGAIN

DEPARTED DREAMS

There are gains for all our losses. There are gains for all our pains. But when youth, the dream, departs, It takes something from our hearts. And it never comes again.

We are stronger and are better Under manhood's sterner reign; Still, we feel that something sweet Followed youth, with flying feet, And will never come again.

Something beautiful is vanished And we sigh for it in vain: We behold it everywhere, On the earth, and in the air. But it never comes again.

Isaac Berchawsky has bought from Fred A. Thordike the houses on Spruce street numbered 19 and 21.
Parker F. Norcross has bought the house on Park street which he and his father, W. F. Norcross are occupying.
John Kent of Swan's Island has moved into the Parker house, 58 Warren street, recently vacated by the Messrs Webster.

Pervasive weather has thus far held up the annual meeting of Pleasant Valley Grange. Another attempt to adjourn will be made next Tuesday night.

The uneasy hot air balloons in the window of Mullen's candy store, attract the attention of Christmas shoppers, and are an unending source of wonder on the part of the kiddies.

Materials for the 12 houses which the Rockland Building Co. is to erect on day street place have arrived on the scene of action. Three of the cellars are completed, and a fourth is nearly done.

The winter attendance at the Knox county jail is considerably below normal, there being only four inmates in Turkey Hall's cells at present. A 30-day course in wood-saving isn't over and above popular.

The Mark Master degree was conferred upon Alfred L. Churea and H. W. Merry by King Solomon Temple Chapter Thursday night. There will be another meeting next Thursday for work in the Past and Most Excellent degrees.

Brewer and Bridges, who make their debut in a novel singing and dancing act at the moving picture theatre in Warren tonight, are booked for Park Theatre Wednesday and Thursday of next week, with change of program each day.

William W. Case, who has been traveling through the West and South for the East Coast Fisheries Company, sends some of his brother Elks a copy of the program used by El Paso, Texas, Lodge No. 187, on the occasion of the annual memorial services. "Busy times here on the border, with the town full of soldiers, Indians and Mexicans," writes Mr. Case. The Rockland salesman has been thrice delayed on his homeward journey, twice by railroad wrecks and once by a bridge being carried away.

School children are again showing commendable interest in the work of the Junior Red Cross. The membership is already 405, and will receive considerable accessions from grades yet to report. One hundred percent rooms were reported by Miss Lena Thordike and Miss Eleanor Griffin. Quite a number of the grades gave up their customary Christmas celebrations in order to buy Red Cross seals and join the Junior Red Cross. The war is over, but the patriotism of the Rockland school children isn't.

Sweet cider is no longer a popular beverage at a certain Main street store. "There's a reason," as they say about a certain other beverage.

Claremont Commandery holds its annual installation and ball Monday evening. J. A. Richan will be the installing officer, assisted by F. A. Peterson.

Elmer R. Bigzer, science instructor at Rockland High, is spending the Christmas holidays at Lisbon Falls, Mechanic Falls and Casco, places where he has taught.

Leon Simmons of Fitchburg, Mass., is spending a fortnight's vacation in this city, the guest of his brother Raymond Simmons. He is pulling down good money as weaver in a woolen mill.

George Hart, Abe Kinney and John Lammigan indulged in a three-cornered scrap at a local pool room yesterday afternoon, and were in Judge Miller's presence when this paper went to press.

General Manager Walter J. Rich of the East Coast Fisheries Company has a new Cadillac motor car of special design—one of the most attractive cars that has been brought into the city this season.

Golden Rod Chapter, O. E. S., held its annual meeting last night, electing these officers: Matron, Margaret A. Stevenson; patron, Robert V. Stevenson; associate matron, Florence M. Philbrook; secretary, Susie B. Campbell; treasurer, Nellie G. Dow; conductor, Nellie Thomas; finance committee, Homer E. Robinson, Hester Chase and Gertrude Payson. There will be a public installation at the first meeting in January. The grand matron will be present at the next meeting.

Mrs. Harriet Jones of Warren street received yesterday that her son, W. J. White, of New London, while working aloft on a vessel, stepped on a chair which was not strong enough to hold him and he fell about 24 feet, striking on the pilot house, the door of which being open, broke the fall; otherwise he would have fallen 60 feet. No bones were broken, but he struck on his head and received internal injuries, which leave him in a serious condition. Mr. White was taken to New London to a hospital where he received skilled medical treatment, and later was taken to his home.

The East Coast Fisheries Company, with its rapidly expanding pay-roll, amounting already to $60,000 a month, it is said, is abundant reason for universal Christmas cheer in Rockland, and everybody is rejoicing at the rich plum which dropped into the city's lap without waiting to be plucked. Nor should anybody overlook the fact that Rockland has another major industry—the lime business—which put the city on the map a great many years ago. The Rockland & Rockport Lime Co. has a monthly pay-roll of about $45,000, with 22 kilns in operation. Two of these kilns are in Rockport. Rockland is fast taking its destined place in the industrial world.

WONDERFUL WRESTLING

Charles Metro and Kid Boldue
Winners of Two Classy Battles Last Night.

Last night's wrestling exhibition at Rockland Athletic Club was in competition with many other important events. The result, obviously, was a slim attendance. The loyal fans who followed their bunch, and hit the trail for the savdust arena in Spear block were rewarded by two bouts which have never been equalled in this city for either skill or strenuousness.

The feature event was the match between Charles Metro of Lewiston, N. H., and Joe Perelli of Brooklyn. Metro's name is almost as familiar in the wrestling column as Dempsey's is in the pugilistic world, for no week passes when he does not figure in a main bout somewhere. Perelli, who is only 21 years old, and lately arrived from Italy, is a son of a former world's champion wrestler—a splendidly put up lad who gives every evidence of being able to follow in the footsteps of his distinguished parent. His trip to Rockland was a first for three nights.

In spite of this handicap it took Metro 38½ minutes to bring about the first fall. The trick was done by the use of a double headlock. The second fall was won by Perelli in 46½ minutes with a headlock and bar hold, and was so quickly and neatly done that Metro was as much surprised as anybody. The Gotch toe-hold won the match for Metro, his opponent surrendering after 11½ minutes.

It was announced that Patsy McCarthy, the New York giant would be matched with the winner, and that the event will take place in this city New Year's night.

The other bout last night was between Kid Boldue of Lewiston, who claims the world's championship at 133 pounds, and Young Tremblay of Boston, who has already shown his skill in local exhibitions. Boldue won both falls—the first in 17½ minutes with the hammer lock and scissors hold, and the second in 40 minutes and 50 seconds with Gotch's famous toe-hold. "He's a good man," was Boldue's comment, after the strenuous battle.

Boldue and Metro were the referees and Clifford W. Witham, a well known local sportsman, was time-keeper. Matchmaker Dondis announced the bill for the Christmas night sparring exhibition. The main bout will be between Young Sullivan of Lewiston and Dusty Crowell of Portland. Young Dube of Lewiston will meet Young Pocky McFarland of Portland in the semi-final, and Young Gammage of Rockland will meet an unknown in the preliminaries.

MAKING THE WORLD SAFE

Old John Barleycorn is Down and Out and the On-coming Generations Will Not Resurrect Him.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—
A new world is rising from the ashes of the old. Its evolution from a lower stage in the ladder of human progress to a higher and more noble ideal, the long delayed onward march of the Christian Soldier, marching as to war that we have so often heard sung in our churches, is not about to start but is fully on the way. Thousands of churches representing the different creeds, with an army estimated at number twenty-five million soldiers of the cross have girded on their armor and are marching as to war.

Many men of good red blood who do not believe the responsibilities of the parent and at the threshold of the home, rejoice today in the fact that at last the church realizes that there are many reforms which can be brought about through collective effort, and casting aside creed have determined to assist humanity to a higher plane, to more noble ideals. In the past the desire for gold and power has overshadowed the glory of the cross, but in the new world that shall be the heritage of our children the cross shall outshine every human desire. The red flag of anarchy, the ruin vendor, the cheap politician, the grafter and profiteer shall all be displaced by earnest, honest men, soldiers of the cross in whose hands shall rest not only the peace of a world but a safe and sane democracy.

Certainly there has been laudable individual effort by the church to combat the evils which surrounded society, but now it is a mighty collective effort to sweep the world clean and make it a fit dwelling-place for all humanity. I have never ceased to contend that municipal, state or national evils never could exist if all those who are adherents of the different creeds acted as honest men, should or as they had been taught to understand, the difference between light and darkness, in other words, right and wrong. But moral cowardice, love of gold or power, overshadowed those more noble qualities which all men are seemingly possessed with, the right choice, touched in their natures, and the first great victory of this on-marching army is National Prohibition.

It's a wonderful stroke in defense of childhood, these little ones who are to become the future citizens of this great republic. Where is there one on all the earth who can name one redeeming feature of old John Barleycorn? Who cares to write upon his tombstone one touching epitaph? Where are the little ones who would come in Springtime and place flowers on his grave? No, there are millions of children, those underfed and scantily clothed bolls of humanity, who pray that for him there will be no resurrection.

In the birth of this new world there is no place for intemperance. All the beastly evils of the past must go. A sovereign people have willed it; the brotherhood of man we have so long looked for, has at hand. The future, office-holder must have ideals which coincide with pure citizenship. Platforms will be erected upon which they must stand—their four corners will not rest on the beer keg. The eagle that adorns the liberty pole will not be displaced by a German beer mug. The kiddo of today will live to see better laws, different working conditions, a pure moral atmosphere, a more unselfish world where the glory of the cross will outshine the love of money. As Lincoln broke the shackles of slavery, so collectively all thinking men have cut the shackles that held in bondage our brother men and are leading him into a brighter and better and more peaceful world, one made fit to safeguard democracy.

G. L. Maguire.

COST OF SILAGE CORN

Was $9.45 a Ton, Based on Reports
From 21 Farms—York County Lowest.

How much does it cost per ton to raise silage corn in Maine? This question, as a sort of hypothesis of a study of the cost of milk production, is answered by Maurice D. Jones, farm management demonstrator of the University of Maine extension service. His figures, based on an analysis of reports from 21 dairy farms which submitted records this year, show an average cost of $8.45 per ton.

The lowest average cost per ton in the production of silage corn was in York county, $5.72. Penobscot is second, $6.31. The average total cost of production per acre was $88.11. York being the lowest, $65.38. The average costs for all in the various items in the schedule were: Plowing, $5.67 per acre; harrowing, $4.20; handling manure, $8.55; planting, $2.20; cultivating, $5.00; cutting and binding, $3.05; putting into silo, $16.87; cost of fertilizer used, $12.19; seed, $2.15; manure used, $16.42; approximate rent of land, $9.01; miscellaneous, $1.41.

RECALLS NOTABLE ARREST

Wellington correspondent in the Dexter Gazette:—
"J. M. Porter of Waldoboro, foreman of F. M. Fogg's lumber mill, has been in town recently looking after Mr. Fogg's interest here and also Abbott. Mr. Porter was deputy sheriff 38 years ago in Knox county. On one of his drives which occurred in this vicinity, although many years have passed, Mr. Porter recognized the place where he arrested a Washington county man who had attempted murder. Jameson tried to escape to Canada, but Mr. Porter overtook and arrested him at Judge Harvey's place in Parkman. Mr. Porter stopped with By. Brewster over night, as he lived by Mr. Harvey, arresting Jameson the next morning and carrying him back to his county. Clifford L. Wentworth, formerly of Hope was accompanying Mr. Porter on his trip. Mr. Wentworth was at one time a sparring partner of the late Joseph Donovan, the pugilist.

For Twelve Years She Sought Relief—
Only Found It After Taking Tanlac.

"Nothing ever helped me until I got Tanlac, and that's saying a good deal, for I have been trying for twelve years to get well," said Mrs. Bernice Farmer, who lives at Yarmouthville, Me., a suburb of Portland, the other day.

"For the past twelve years," she continued, "after every meal I would have terrible pains in my stomach and gas would form and I would have a choking sensation. I suffered with a raging headache most of the time and my nerves were so shattered I could hardly sleep at all, and would get up in the morning weak and all fagged out, I felt tired all the time, and would be compelled to lie down several times during the day and rest, and began to believe I would have to give up. I tried all kinds of medicines but kept getting worse all the time.

"I had been reading so much of the good Tanlac was doing others so I decided to give it a trial myself, and after I had taken only a few doses I began to feel a great improvement. I have taken three bottles now and those pains after eating have entirely stopped and there is never a sign of gas. My nerves are in a great deal better shape and I sleep better at night and eat up in the mornings, feeling much stronger, and I seldom have a headache now. Tanlac has helped me in every way and I feel sure that in a short time I will be entirely relieved of all my troubles."

Tanlac is sold in Rockland by Corner Drug Store, and in Thomaston by Whitney & Brackett—adv.

RICHARDS ESTATE INSOLVENT

Report has been filed in the Cumberland county Probate Court by the administrators of the late Fred E. Richards, representing the estate of the deceased to be insolvent and seek to have the court appoint commissioners to receive and decide upon the claims of several creditors. The court has appointed Emory G. Wilson, Harry C. Wilbur and Edward S. Anthony, all of Portland, as commissioners to so act.

Schedule A, which accompanies the petition of the administrators, Edward B. Winslow, Frank B. Timmerlake and Edward W. Cox, represents the list of debts claimed as owing by the deceased at the time of his death. This list contains 12 claims amounting in the aggregate to $60,082.

Schedule B, contains the list of claims based upon the alleged signature of Fred E. Richards either as endorser or as joint and several promisor upon note or notes held by the claimants. All of these claims, amounting in the total to $123,060, are disputed by the administrators and they deny that any of them are valid claims against the estate.

The combined schedules show claims amounting to $183,082.

NEIGHBORLY WORDS

Our good friend and neighbor the Rockland Courier-Gazette shows its prosperity and progressiveness by beginning this week as a three-a-week instead of twice-a-week. The Courier is a well edited, live and newsy county paper and we shall be glad to welcome it three times a week instead of twice. With the change the subscription price is raised from $2 to $3 per year. We trust the Courier will continue to prosper and improve as its age increases.

HAVE YOU SCROFULA?

Now Said to Be as Often Acquired as Inherited.

It is generally and chiefly indicated by eruptions and sores, but in many cases it enlarges the glands of the neck, affects the internal organs, especially the lungs, and if neglected may develop into consumption.

It causes many troubles, and is aggravated by impure air, unwholesome food, bad water, too much heat or cold, and want of proper exercise. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the medicine that has been used with so much satisfaction by three generations, is wonderfully successful in the treatment of scrofula. Give it a trial. If a cathartic or laxative is needed, take Hood's Pills—there is nothing better for biliousness or constipation.

From the Florida Times-Union of Nov. 12, this item:
"Capt. J. W. Roper has resigned as master of the steamship Lake Winona to take a position as master of the new auxiliary schooner Gennet Sherwog, now nearing completion in Brunswick, Ga. The Gennet Sherwog is owned by R. Lawrence Smith (Inc.), of New York. The company is represented in Jacksonville by W. H. Montgomery, general Southern agent. This firm is being congratulated on securing the services of Capt. Roper, who has made many warm friends during his stay in Jacksonville. It will be recalled that the Lake Winona was in the recent hurricane and was driven ashore, but, through the line seamanship of Capt. Roper, the vessel was saved. The Lake Winona has been at this port for repairs."

William H. Thomas of Rockland who recently made a voyage to the coast of Africa, and who has quite recovered from the fever he contracted there, has joined Capt. Roper in Mobile, Ala., and will be an officer on the Gennet Sherwog.

PARK THEATRE

Dorothy Gish, without an equal or imitators, monopolizes the screen today in "I'll Get Him Yet," a splendid farce comedy, in which the heroine attempts to conceal the fact that she had a fortune was misconstrued by the jealous husband. The weekend bill has other good things. The Universal Weekly, "Outing-Chester" and "Wild Waves and Women."

"Let's Elope" is the feature subject for Monday and Tuesday—a swiftness comedy, with Marguerite Clark as star. Marguerite is almost a stranger here, but she will prove that there is no waning in her great popularity. A comedy "8000 Short," and the Universal Weekly complete a popular program.
